Delay in Opening of New Library

Opening of the new Kansas City, Kansas, public library, scheduled for tomorrow, will be delayed until Wednesday. Willard K. Dennis, head librarian, said many details remain to be completed to have the unit functioning efficiently when it opens.

Hours for the new building will be from 8:30 a. m. to 9 o'clock at night, Monday through Friday, and 8:30 to 5 o'clock on Saturday. The library will occupy the first two floors of the new building. Administrative offices of the school district are on the third floor.
