

LAST MONTH AT THE LIBRARY

December 2011

Members of the Common Grounds Book Club donated 32 hats and a dozen pairs of gloves for the Hats and Hands for Whittier Kids collection.

The Main Library hosted the Social Media Club of Kansas City and a standing room only crowd who came to learn more about Google's high speed fiber initiative and to share their ideas on how the community can best make use of this opportunity.

LAST MONTH AT THE LIBRARY

December 2011

Harmon High School students entertained at the Main Library's annual holiday party.

Santa visited the Argentine Library and heard the holiday wishes of more than 60 children.

Maria Munoz's cake decorating class hosted a cake display and sampling.

Eisenhower Middle School students became regulars at Schlagle Library's Bird in the Hand program due to the efforts of their teacher, Michelle Loeffler.

Schlagle Library welcomed Lana Artz as a new staff member.

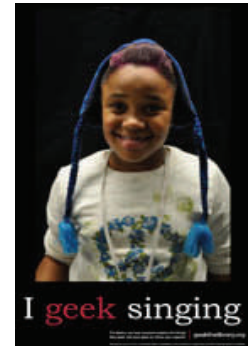

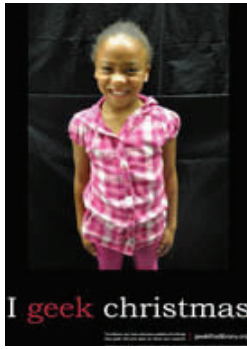

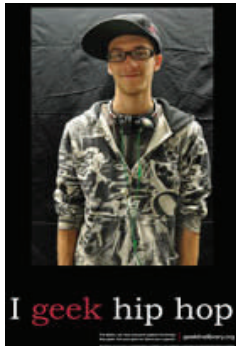

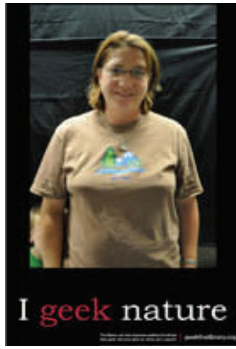

Drop-in visits to Schlagle Library more than doubled this fall over last!

LAST MONTH AT THE LIBRARY

December 2011

The West Wyandotte Library offered four opportunities for patrons to reveal what they geek and get their picture taken for the “Geek the Library” campaign.

More than 2,100 people attended programs at the public library in December.

